Research Volunteers needed!

- Native English speakers (ages 18 to 65) are needed for a linguistics research study at the College of Staten Island
- Your participation will help us better understand spoken language
- Participation in the study involves:
  - Filling out questionnaires
  - Reading words and sentences aloud into a microphone
- Participation takes approximately 30 – 45 minutes
- Receive $20 for your time
- Contact Professor Jason Bishop at jason.bishop@csi.cuny.edu to schedule a time to participate, or to get more information!
